

CBSE/Training & Skill Edu./2019

Dated:05.12.2019

Subject: Training and Mentoring of Principals and Vice-Principals of CBSE affiliated Schools in Association with Indian Institutes of Management (IIMs).

CBSE is constantly striving to enrich and augment the managerial skills and leadership qualities of its Principals/School leaders and develop them into efficient and effective change makers in the field of education for a better future for schools. To create a forum for them for exchange of ideas, best practices and research findings in the domain of educational leadership and management, CBSE, in collaboration with IIMs has scheduled a series of training programmes at multiple locations across the country.

Areas like strategic management and decision making, element of visionary leadership, defining and managing the cultural D.N.A of the school, introducing and managing changes at institutional level, building organizational culture, counselling and managing external stake holders and many more topics like these are planned to be covered in these programmes.
