Read the given passage and answer the following questions.

The need for digital literacy in a country as populous and diverse as India is critical. If it is used for education, healthcare, citizen services, financial services or any other basic need, technology and connectivity, it can make a huge difference to the socio-economic levels of a community, and ultimately to the country, since true progress comes from inclusive growth. Digital literacy plays a vital role in e-services like e-commerce, e-governance, e-panchayat, e-learning etc. In current scenario, technology is becoming an inevitable part of our daily life be it using mobile phones, drawing cash from ATM machines, booking a railway ticket etc. Hence, there is a need that every individual in the country must be equipped with necessary skills so as to use the technology with responsibility. The definition of who is considered a literate or educated has evolved over time and it is not complete without digital literacy. Digital literacy according to the popular definition is the ability to locate, organize, understand, evaluate and create information using digital technology.

Read the following paragraph and answer the questions given below. Choose an appropriate option (i.e., A or B or C or D) from those given under each question.

The Shah of Persia had heard of Birbal's intelligence and he wrote to emperor Akbar requesting that Birbal be allowed to visit his court. Akbar was pleased because he was extremely proud of Birbal, and sent him to Persian court in all splendour. As soon as Birbal, reached the Persian capital, the Shah set for him. When he reached the royal audience chamber, he saw a semi – circular arrangement of seats. In each of them was a well – dressed regal figures and all of them were dressed exactly alike. Anyone of them could have been the Shah of Persia. Birbal stopped for a while, then looked keenly, went and bowed to real Shah.

Taken aback by this, the Shah of Persia listened to Birbal's flowery address and replied in the flowery language. Then he asked, "Birbal, how did you recognize me?" Birbal replied to this question by saying, "Your majesty! When I looked round, I found everyone looking at you. Only you did not look at anyone. I knew at once who the real Shah of Persia was". The Shah bestowed upon Birbal the title Ocean of Intelligence by which men knew him ever after.

Read the following passage and answer the questions given below.

In my younger days and more vulnerable years my father gave me some advice that I 'have been turning over in my mind ever since. "Whenever you feel like criticizing anyone" he told me, "just remember that all the people in this world haven't had the advantages that you have had"

He didn't say any more, but we have always been unusually communicative in a reserved way, and I understood that he meant a great deal more than that. In consequence, I 'am inclined to reserve all judgments, a habit that has opened up many curious nature to me and also made me the victim not a few veteran bores.
