Legal Principle : Any person who interferes with the discharge of duties by a public servant is liable for punishment.

Factual Situation : Mohan, a celebrity appoints Sohan, a bodyguard. Neelam, a police officer takes entry, with search warrant, in the House of Mohan to search for document connected with abduction of a Film Producer, with whom Mohan was not sharing good relation. Sohan prevents and threatens Neelam not to enter the bedroom of Mohan. Sohan is prosecuted for intimidating a public servant. Is Sohan liable for punishment?

Options :

1. Not Sohan but Mohan would be liable for punishment for interfering with the discharge of duties by a public servant through his bodyguard.
2. No, because Sohan is not the owner of the house.
3. Yes, because Sohan was interfering with public servant to discharge her official duty.
4. No, because Neelam could not show FIR filed against Mohan.

Legal Principle : Whoever, intending to insult the modesty of any woman, utters and word, makes any sound or gesture, or exhibits any object, intending that such word or sound shall be heard and that such gesture or object shall be seen, by such woman, or intrudes upon the privacy of such woman, shall be punished.

Factual Situation : Payal works in an Export House in Mumbai. There are more than 100 employees along with workers in such company. One of the employees Rajesh wanted to have some talks with Payal. But she scolded him in front of some 50 workers in employee's canteen. Taking this grudge, Rajesh everyday during entry at morning patted Payal's hand and shook her right-hand for few minutes against her will. One day she made up her mind and informed to her Boss. But the Boss due to the work efficiency of Rajesh did not take any action. She alternatively informed the Police. Police arrested Rajesh. Rajesh told the police to defend himself that he used to shake her hand as it is a manner of wishing a colleague and that his Boss is enough to take action because it is the workplace and his Boss is competent to decide matter himself. What shall happen to Rajesh?

Options :

1. Rajesh shall be punished because shaking hand with a girl against her will amounts to the sexual harassment at workplace and such an act is subject to be prosecuted.

2. Rajesh can be punished only by his Boss not by Court of Law in India.

3. Rajesh shall not be punished because shaking hand is no offence in India.

4. Rajesh shall not be punished because he acts in such manner only during office hours and before many employees not in a confined room.

Legal Principle : When a criminal act is done by one person in furtherance of the common intention of himself and some other persons, each of such persons is liable for the act in the same manner as if it were done by each one of them.

Factual Situation : A, B and C decide to commit burglary. They broke into a locked house. However, a domestic servant appeared from the out-house before they had finished and started shouting. A, B and C left the house and started running away. They were pursued by a small crowd. A, on being caught by X, one of the persons pursuing them, stabbed him and ran away. By that time B and C had disappeared.

X died on account of the stab wounds. Later the police arrested all the three. They were charged for attempted burglary and murder of X.

Options :

1. Along with A, the person who stabbed X, B and C are also guilty of murder because A stabbed X in furtherance of common intention to commit murder.

2. Along with A, B and C are also guilty of murder because A, at the time of stabbing X, was acting on behalf of B and C and he wanted to save not only himself but B and C as well.

3. A alone is guilty of murder because though there was common intention to commit the offence of burglary, there was no common intention to commit the offence of murder.

4. A will be charged for theft only as there was no intention for murder.

Legal Principle : If there is infringement of legal right of a person, he can sue under torts for compensation even if he has not suffered any harm or loss of a single penny.

Factual Situation : Biju, a bank manager refuses to honour a cheque presented by Chintan, a customer. He knows that Chintan has sufficient funds in his account. Can Chintan sue Biju under torts and claim compensation?

Options :

1. The Banker has violated legal right of Chintan. He can be sued under torts to pay compensation.

2. The entire money of Chintan in his bank account is intact. He suffers no damage. He should get no compensation.

3. Biju can plea extraordinary situation in the bank at that point of time due to which he could not honour the cheque.

4. Only third party can claim compensation and not Chintan.

Legal Principle : Two persons agree on the same thing in the same sense shall make a contract.

Factual Situation : Aalok knows that Bijon has two Jeeps—Mahindra and Maruti. Bijon takes Aalok from a marriage party to drop him home in his Mahindra Jeep. While going, they were discussing about the comparative merits and demerits of the two jeeps. Bijon suggests selling his spacious jeep. While discussing, Aalok thinks Maruti is also quite comfortable and spacious. Aalok asked for the price, Bijon replied, Rs 2 lakhs. Aalok said, “I shall buy”. Afterwards, Aalok wants to get the Maruti jeep for Rs 2 lakhs, whereas Bijon said he wished to sell only the Mahindra Jeep.

Options :

1. It is a valid contract because the consideration is absolutely certain.
2. It is a voidable contract and it is the option of the sufferer party to declare it valid or void.
3. It is an uncertain agreement and hence void.
4. The agreement was induced by mutual mistake and hence void.

Legal Principle : A minor is not competent to contract.

Factual Situation : A minor mortgaged his house and received advance of Rs 1 lakh. The mortgagee files a suit against the minor to recover the money advanced by him. The minor mortgagor takes the plea that the suit is not maintainable as there was no valid contract. Decide.

Options :

1. An agreement with minor is absolutely void.
2. It is voidable at the option of the parties.
3. The minor is liable to return the money received by him as advance.
4. Mortgagee can file suit against parent of the minor.

Legal Principle : Under Indian Constitution, everybody shall be equal before law.

Factual Situation : The Income-tax Act happens to provide that those whose annual income is up to Rs 2,50,000 shall pay 15% of their income as tax; and those whose annual income exceeds Rs 2,50,000 shall pay the tax at the rate of 20%. Those citizens whose annual income exceeds Rs 2,50,000 challenge this legislation on the ground that it is a violation of the principle of equality before law.

Options :

1. They will succeed, because the law discriminates against the people who earn more than Rs 2,50,000 per annum.
2. They will not succeed, because the people who earn more than Rs 2,50,000 are not equal to the people who earn less than Rs 2,50,000.
3. They will not succeed, because this law enables the Government to equalise the incomes of all the people in the country.
4. They will not succeed, because citizens earning less than Rs 2,50,000 are not equal to those earning above it. Taxes must vary.

Legal Principle : The Constitution of India guarantees freedom of speech and expression to all the citizens subject to the right of the State to make a law and impose restrictions on this freedom in the interest of sovereignty and integrity of India, the security of State, friendly relations with foreign States, public order, decency or morality, or in relation to contempt of court, defamation, incitement of an offence.

Factual Situation : FIN TV, a Singapore-based Satellite TV company introduces a new channel called as 'Channel MMM' which can be viewed in India. It is meant for betting since it telecasts only those cricket games which are having huge betting. The Government of India passes a law and bans viewing of this channel and other similar channels in India. It also makes reception and circulation of such programmes by cable TV operators a punishable offence. This is likely to result into considerable financial loss for cable TV operators throughout India because they were expecting massive viewership for Channel MMM. The cable TV Operators' Federation in New Delhi filed a writ petition in the Supreme Court challenging the validity of the new law as contradictory to freedom of speech and expression. What could be the main argument on behalf of the Government to justify their action?

Options :

1. The Government has all power to allow or to stop the telecasting of a new channel in the country.
2. State can impose reasonable restriction in the interest of public order or morality, on telecast of a channel showing betting in cricket games.
3. Freedom of speech and expression does not include freedom to air betting in cricket.
4. Freedom of speech and expression is not absolute and has restrictions.

Legal Principle : Under the Constitution, nobody can be convicted twice for the same offence.

Factual Situation : The students of a college went on strike against the reservation by the college. A student Neeraj in the ensuing confusion assaulted a staff member and injured him grievously. For this offence, he was rusticated from the college. Subsequently, the police arrested him and charge-sheeted him for causing grievous hurt. Neeraj pleads that he is being convicted for the same offence twice.

Options :

1. Neeraj should not be punished twice for same offence. This is unconstitutional.
2. Neeraj has not committed an intentional crime. He should be acquitted as rustication is itself enough punishment.
3. Neeraj cannot plead double conviction as the two authorities are different.
4. Neeraj is not yet convicted as only a court can convict and rustication from college does not amount to conviction.

Legal Principle : If a person without any authority prevents a person to proceed to any direction and is kept confined, he commits an offence of wrongful confinement.

Factual Situation : The Municipal Board of Lucknow allowed Pritam to hold a marriage party blocking a part of a public road. The marriage party blocked most of the roads and did not allow Rishabh, a passerby, to cross the road. He brings a charge of criminal confinement against the head of the marriage party and other associates. Can Rishabh succeed?

Options :

1. Rishabh cannot succeed because Pritam has got previous official permission from the Municipal Board and has blocked part of the public road.
2. Rishabh can succeed because he has authority to walk on public road.
3. Rishabh cannot succeed because he must have to wait up to end of marriage party.
4. Rishabh shall succeed because no one is allowed to use public property for the personal benefit.
