During the Civil War, Truth bought gifts for the soldiers with money raised from her lectures and helped fugitive slaves find work and housing. After the war, she continued her tirade for the Lord and against racial injustice, even when old age and ill health restricted her activities to the confines of a Battle Creek, Mich, sanatorium. She died there on November 26, 1883.

Questions :

- 1) What did Truth buy for the soldiers?
- 2) When did she die?

Use of bicycle should be made popular. We should observe 'cycle day' once in a month and on that day cycle riding alone should be allowed barring emergencies. People used to go for their daily chores on cycle in old times. Why can't we do the same today? In recreational trips, we can opt for bicycle instead of car or motorbike.

Questions :

- 3) How should use of bicycle be made popular?
- 4) Find out the word from the extract that means 'done for pleasure or relaxation'.

[5]

It was terrifying to stand erect on a knife-edge ridge, with a sheer drop on either side. I had to dig my ice-axe deep and secure myself by attaching the waist-strap to the ice-axe head. There was some tricky climbing between the South Summit and what is popularly known as Hillary's Step. Ang Dorjee and Lhatoo were already over it, but I was still negotiating its vertical face when Ang Dorjee gesticulated towards the top. I was thrilled. The goal was near. With renewed vigour I was on top of step in seconds. The sun had made the snow soft and climbing was easier here than it had been earlier.

Teens give love and honour to grandmothers

Times of India

November 5, 2018

Rajkot: Eighty years old Kanu Namera could barely control her emotions when youngsters clapped and sang birthday song for her. For the first time, she witnessed her own birthday celebrations, that too with proper cake cutting, candles and balloons.

But Namera was not alone to receive this pre-Diwali gift. In all, there were 30 women — 28 aged 90 years and two 100 years olds — whose birthdays were celebrated by a group of youngsters in Harbityari village, 5 km from Tankara town of Rajkot district.

In this village of just around 3,000 people, 10 teenage boys and as many girls have formed two social groups named 'Mahakaal' and 'Kumkum' respectively to celebrate the lives of old people, who are mostly considered to be a burden on the family.

Rohit Moradia, a class VII student and a part of Mahakaal said, "Our grandmothers have sacrificed a lot for the families. But their lives usually go uncelebrated. So we decided to celebrate their birthdays in the same way as ours."

The youngsters bought 10 cakes, balloons and candles, decorated the village school with asopalav and made rangoli with 'Happy Birthday' message.

Questions :

- 23) How old was Kanu Namera?
- 24) How far is Harbityari village from Tankara town?
- 25) Name two social groups formed by the boys and the girls of Harbityari village.

26) What did Rohit Moradia say?
