NEIGHBOUR

Iain Crichton Smith

Build me a bridge over the stream to my neighbour's house where he is standing in dungarees* in the fresh morning.

O ring of snowdrops
spread wherever you want and you also blackbird sing across the fences.

My neighbour, if the rain falls on you, let it fall on me also from the same black cloud that does not recognize gates.

* dungarees : a garment consisting of trousers held up by straps over the shoulders.
