pledges we have so often taken and the one we shall take today. The service of India means the service of the millions who suffer. It means the ending of poverty and ignorance and disease and inequality of opportunity. The ambition of the greatest man of our generation has been to wipe out every tear from every eye. That may be beyond us but so long as there are tears and suffering, so long our work will not be over. And so we have to labour and to work and to work hard, to give reality to our dreams. Those dreams are for India, but they are also for the world, for all the nations and the people are too closely knit together today for anyone to imagine that it can live apart.
