

Question No.	Answer
6 A (I)	Let the wrong doers be punished by the government.
II	The policeman told the man that he is a trespasser and will be punished
III	As soon as the minister arrived, the meeting started.
IV	He does his work himself without depending on others.
V	A law abiding citizen is one who abides by the law of the land.
VI	I met a woman whose purse was snatched by someone.
VII	You aren't going out, are you?
VIII	He never forgets his well-wishers.
IX	He drove so fast that the police could not catch him.
X	The book may be either in the bag or in the cupboard.
6 B (I)	Children should look up to their teachers.
II	He had been let down badly in the past.
III	He was unable to take up the Goa posting.
IV	Why did she turn down the invitation?
V	He had to break into the house as he had lost the key.
6 C (I)	One of the prisoners escaped from the prison van.
II	How could you forget the name of your school?
III	Prices are increasing by leaps and bounds.
IV	No sooner had I reached the station than the train started.
V	I avoid going there.