VII. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow : (5x1=5)

Gary Chapman in his book, 'Love as a Way of Life' uses the vivid metaphor for words as being either 'bullets or seeds'. If we use our words as bullets with a feeling of superiority and condemnation, we are not going to be able to restore a relationship to love. If we use our words as seeds with a feeling of supportiveness and sincere good will. We can rebuild a relationship in positive and life-affirming ways.

When we need to talk candidly about something difficult with another person, we must focus on the conversation with keen attention and purpose. During the conversation, we must listen patiently, speak tactfully, and tell the truth as we understand it. We must align our words, voice inflection and tone, eye expression, body language and actions with our inner awareness in an honest exchange.

- 1) What is the title of the book written by Gary Chapman ?
 - 2) How does the writer describe words ?
 - 3) How can we rebuild a relationship in positive and life-affirming ways ?
 - 4) What is the noun form of the word 'patiently' ?
 - 5) Find a word in the passage which means the same as the word 'frankly'.
