1. Explain with reference to the context one of the following passages : 4

- a) The People I saw in India - those in the village as well as those in high office - have both pride and a lively sense of - decency and citizenship.

They also have a passion for independence. This beautiful child - born in squalor and poverty, uneducated in both, grammar and manners - have given me a glimpse of the warm soul of India.

- b) You can open the window or shut it without provoking a protest. You can open both windows or shut both. Indeed you can go on opening them or shutting them as a sort of festival of freedom. You can have any corner, you choose and try all of them in turn.

You can lie at full length, on the cushions and enjoy the luxury of breaking the regulations and possibly the heart of D. O. R. A herself. Only D. O. R. A will not know that her heart is broken. You have escaped even D. O. R. A.

- c) In ancient times, our women had the ceremony of 'upanayana' - performed for them. They were entitled to a study of Vedas. They were also entitled to the chanting of 'Gayatri Japa' . All These things were open to our women. But our civilization became arrested and one of the main signs of that decay of our civilization is the subjection of women.

After independence, through the exertions of Mahatma Gandhi, a revolution has been effected in our country and women are coming into their own.
