PROSE - SHORT STORIES

(Treasure Trove – A Collection of Poems and Short Stories)

Question 4

Read the following extract from T.S. Arthur’s short story, ‘An Angel in Disguise’ and answer the questions that follow:

“What is to be done with the children?” That was the chief question now. The dead mother would go underground, and be forever beyond all care or concern of the villagers. But the children must not be left to starve.

- (i) Describe the way in which the children’s mother died. [3]
What are the factors that led to her death?
- (ii) How do the people of the village treat the woman before her death? [3]
How does their manner change after she dies?
What does their behaviour tell us about human nature?
- (iii) Name the woman’s three children. [3]
State one fact about each of them that the author mentions at the very beginning of the story.
- (iv) What happens to each of the children after the mother’s funeral? [3]
- (v) Which of the three children can be considered the ‘Angel in Disguise’? [4]
What does the term ‘disguise’ refer to in the context of this story?
How does the child’s arrival transform the home she enters?

Question 5

Read the following extract from Ray Bradbury’s short story, ‘All Summer in a Day’ and answer the questions that follow:

“Margot”

They stood as if someone had driven them like so many stakes into the floor. They looked at each other and then looked away. They glanced out at the world that was raining now and raining and raining steadily. They could not meet each other's glances. Their faces were solemn and pale. They looked at their hands and feet, their faces down.

- (i) Who is Margot? [3]
How does the author describe her?
- (ii) Who are 'They'? [3]
Where do they live?
Mention any one reality of the planet on which they live.
- (iii) What two words would you use to describe what the children were experiencing [3] in the above extract?
Why does the mention of Margot's name affect them in this way?
- (iv) What event had the children awaited eagerly that day? [3]
What made this event special?
Why did this event mean so much to Margot in particular?
- (v) What is the central theme of Bradbury's story, 'All Summer in a Day'? [4]
What important lesson have the children learnt from this experience?
Why do you suppose the story is said to end on a note of hope?

Question 6

Read the following extract from William Wordsworth's poem, 'Daffodils' and answer the questions that follow:

*When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.*

- (i) Wordsworth uses the words, 'wandered' and 'lonely' to describe himself in the [3] opening lines of the poem.
What mood do these words convey?
What led to a change in his mood?

- (ii) How does Wordsworth describe the sight that met his eyes? [3]
Give a brief description of what the poet saw.
- (iii) To what does the poet compare this sight? [3]
How is this comparison appropriate?
- (iv) What does the poet mean when he says, 'Ten thousand saw I at a glance'? [3]
Find two other words in the given extract that create the impression of large numbers.
- (v) What immediate effect did this sight have on Wordsworth? [4]
How did it affect him in the long-term?
What does this poem tell us about Wordsworth's attitude to Nature?

Question 7

Read the following extract from Maya Angelou's poem, 'I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings' and answer the questions that follow:

But a caged bird stands on the grave of dreams his shadow shouts on a nightmare scream his wings are clipped and his feet are tied so he opens his throat to sing.

- (i) How does Angelou describe the state of the free bird in the opening lines of the poem? [3]
- (ii) Give a brief description of the caged bird's physical and mental condition. [3]
- (iii) Explain the phrase, 'grave of dreams' in your own words. [3]
What does the caged bird sing about?
- (iv) The 'free bird' and the 'caged bird' in the poem represent different groups of people. Name them. [3]
Name any one group of people that you would call 'caged birds' in today's world.
- (v) What does the title of poem, 'I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings', tell us about Maya Angelou's life? [4]
Mention two ways in which the world of the caged bird differs from that of the free bird.
