( COMPREHENSION )

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below it (Question Nos. 17 to 20) :

A few days later Premchand resigned his job of Inspector of Schools after having worked in the department for twenty years. He was a freeman after all. Now he could write novels and stories about his country and his people.

In his books, he dealt with the lives of peasants and workers. He revealed greed and meanness of the money-lenders, landlords and priests. He attacked the social evils like dowry and early marriage. He held society responsible for the sins of women. There was a direct influence of Mahatma Gandhi's teachings on his novel 'Premashram' which he wrote in 1922. Almost like the followers of the Mahatma, the heroes of Premchand's stories and novels fight against cruelty and injustice. Like his master Premchand valued love and tolerance.

- Q.17 What did Premchand do a few days later? [2]
- Q.18 About whom did he write in his books? [2]
- Q.19 What was the main theme of his books? [2]
- Q.20 By whom was he influenced in writing his novel 'Premashram'? [2]

Q.26 Write a precis of the following passage and give a suitable title to it : [1+4=5]

A subject to great debate has been the nature of dreams that people experience. Dreams can range from the mundane to the fantastic. They can create emotions like anxiety, joy, tear, anger, etc. in the dreamer. Dreamers often feel that what they experienced in their dreams is very real. It is common for people to have recurring dreams. Some people have recurring dreams of falling, flying or being hurt.

Nightmares are also common and often occur among children and young. Nightmares may be the results of unresolved conflict or anxiety. Sometimes dreams have been reported to contain warnings or messages about the immediate future. It has been also suggested that dreams can be used for solving problems and arriving at solution.

OR

There were no tears in the king's eyes. He looked at all his courtiers with great affection, but his mind was made up. He took off his royal robes and dropped them gently on the ground. The chief minister picked them up tenderly and kissed them and sobbed like a child. Then the king took off his crown and held it in his hands.

He raised his eyes to heaven and said, O God, I give back to thee the gift of kingship which thousand bestowed upon me. I love my subjects, but I love humanity more. Then he addressed his courtiers and said "My friends, I go into the forest to pray for the rest of my life in order to find peace of mind. I sincerely hope that he whom you choose as your next king will be just and merciful. One day I will return to you, not as your king, but as your servant, the servant of all human beings". He dropped the crown, which rolled down the steps of the throne. In perfect silence, he walked out of the hall.
