

1. Database

- A) the starting point
- B) table of figures
- C) system of signals
- D) collection of information

2. genial

- A) Spontaneous
- B) Cheerful
- C) Fascinating
- D) hereditary

Choose the option that will complete the sentence

3. I have never _____ all through the night beforecs?

- A) had to work
- B) been worked
- C) to have worke
- D) had been working

4. The stolen paintings were eventually restored _____ their rightful owner.

- A) To
- B) With
- C) By
- D) for

Read the passage and answer the questions that follow by choosing the right option.

Wired to a huge variety of other devices, computers process numbers, words, electrical pulses, and many other forms of information in specific ways that are specially useful to particular people and organisations. Computers can perform millions of complicated mathematical calculations in seconds. They can also be used to produce printed texts at blinding speeds, draw complex pictures and control manufacturing process. In some instances a computer can do in minutes what might take a person a lifetime

5. According to the passage, computers can be

- A) Assembled
- B) of different sizes
- C) Customised
- D) copyrighted

6. With the introduction of computers, human potential has been

- A) Accelerated
- B) Changed
- C) Hampered
- D) made irrelevant

CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANTONYM OF THE WORD FROM THE FOUR OPTIONS:

7. He is tall.

- A) Short
- B) Big
- C) Huge
- D) Hungry

8. It is hot outside.

- A) Warm
- B) Breezy
- C) Cold
- D) Stormy

9. This seems like a good hotel.

- A) Brilliant
- B) Bad
- C) Great
- D) Dirty

10. She is foolish.

- A) Dumb
- B) Idiotic
- C) Brainy
- D) Wise