GENERAL PROFICIENCY TEST (GPT)

ENGLISH COMPREHENSION

Directions (Questions* 1 – 2):Read the passage and answer the questions that follow.*

Shopping malls, supermarkets and large format retail stores may besprouting all over the country, but there are still a large number ofentrepreneurs who would rather not sell their wares through the usual retail channels. They prefer selling directly through trade exhibitions,which are attracting an increasing number of footfalls.Scores of exhibitions are held each year in all parts of the country, bigcities and small. Some of the largest exhibitions held in the country aretrade events held by the CII, IT and software expositions held byNasscom, MAIT – manufacturers association show, and expositions whichcater to interior designs and automobiles, etc. "Publications are alsostarting to get into the exhibitions business in a big way," says HemanshuChitnis, Director of Exhibitions and Expositions International (BusinessIndia and Times of India exhibitions are among the largest).Those who exhibit their goods are happy too. Says fashion and textiledesigner Bhamini Subramaniam, who took part recently in the FeminaTrunk Show of designer wear along with designers like Krishna Mehta,Narendra Kumar Ahmed, Naheed Merchant and Pranavi Kapoor fromDelhi: "Large retail outlets have a fixed 40 per cent mark up on designerapparel which they take on a consignment basis. At exhibitions the onlycost incurred is the one-time fee for the stall and there's no price loadsfor consumers." Also we don't have to deal with credit in any form whichenables us complete monitoring over stocks, she adds. Explains PiyushGupta, Director of GNH systems, an importer of Chinese electronicgadgets, "The whole retailing system is very complex in India and thereare middlemen at every stage. They add their profit margin and the extracost is borne by the customer."
