1.7 NIPER Raebareli

NIPER Raebareli (NIPER-R) is a national-level institute focused on pharmaceutical sciences. Its goal is to become a center of excellence for advanced studies and research in the field. The Government of India has declared NIPER-R as an "Institute of National Importance." In the Ministry of Education's (MoE) 2024 National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF), NIPER-R was ranked 14th among pharmaceutical institutes in India.

NIPER-R is an autonomous body established in 2008 and is under the aegis of the Department of Pharmaceuticals, Ministry of Chemicals and Fertilizers, Government of India, to provide leadership in Pharmaceutical Sciences and other related interdisciplinary research areas. Since July 2018, NIPER-Raebareli has been functioning independently from the new transit campus at Bijnor-Sisendi Road, Lucknow. The transit campus of NIPER-R is spread over 5 acres of land, having academic and administrative blocks, separate hostel blocks for boys and girls, and a cafeteria.

Academic Courses

NIPER-R offers an M.S. (Pharm) program with the following specializations: Medicinal Chemistry, Medical Devices, Pharmaceutical Analysis, Pharmaceutics, Regulatory Affairs, Pharmacology and Toxicology, Regulatory Toxicology, and Biotechnology.

Thrust Research Area

NIPER-R is actively working towards addressing the therapeutic requirements of the country, with a special focus on the locally prevalent diseases. Tuberculosis (TB) is one of the most fatal diseases in the country that requires urgent attention, as most of the current drugs used for TB treatment are facing resistance issues. As per the mandate, NIPER-R has initiated research programs aimed at designing, synthesizing, and developing new antitubercular agents. The research programs are also focused on developing treatments for neurodegenerative diseases like Alzheimer's. The Department of Pharmaceutics is actively engaged in creating nanoformulations for BCS class II & IV drugs and peptides. The primary objective of developing these nanoformulations is to target the brain through nanoemulsions, drug nanofibers, polymeric drug nanoparticles, pharmaceutical nanocrystals/cocrystals, mesoporous silica nanoparticles, etc. The Department of Pharmacology & Toxicology's primary research focus is to understand the mechanistic pathways associated with neurodegenerative disorders such as Parkinson's and Alzheimer's disease. The research programs also study the mechanisms that drive the neurological consequences of arsenic, copper, and pesticide exposure. The core research area of the Department of Biotechnology is focused on the identification and development of naturally derived metabolites and bioactive peptides for the treatment of diabetes, cancer, etc. The department is also focused on the development of novel RNA-based therapeutics interventions, understanding protein misfolding and aggregations, and the development of polymer nanodrugs and antibodies targeting tumors/cancers. Nearly 685 research/review papers, including book and book chapters (Elsevier/ Springer/ Bentham Publishers), have been published in the last 2 years in peer-reviewed journals of international/national repute like Chemical Engineering Journal, Journal of American Chemical Society, Medicinal Research Reviews, Drug Discovery Today, Organic Chemistry Frontiers, International Journal of Biological Macromolecules, Journal of Drug Targeting, ACS Catalysis, Frontiers in Pharmacology, European Journal of Medicinal Chemistry, Environment Research, International Journal of Pharmaceutics, Molecular Pharmaceutics, Colloids and Surfaces A, Journal of Physical Chemistry B, ACS Nano, ACS Chemical Neuroscience and non-coding RNA, etc. are the testimony of our recent research achievements. Various extramural projects and industry-sponsored projects are underway. The institute has filed 36 patents since its inception, of which 5 have been granted.
