

SYLLABUS FOR POST BASIC B. Sc. NURSING

UNIT-I: Anatomy & Physiology: Organization of body cell, tissue, organs and different systems.

UNIT-II: Microbiology: Immunity, infection, sterilization & micro-organism.

UNIT-III: Psychology & Sociology: Human behaviour, learning, attention, perception, intelligence and personality.

UNIT-IV: Fundamentals of Nursing: Basic needs and care of the patients, therapeutic nursing care, nursing process, ethics in nursing, First-Aid

UNIT-V: Medical-Surgical Nursing: Management of patients with pain, undergoing surgery, respiratory, gastrointestinal, urinary, cardiovascular disorders nursing & Communicable diseases, assessment altered immune response, Emergency management, nursing care of elderly people. Oncology nursing.

UNIT-VII: Psychiatric Nursing: Mental health assessment, disorder and nursing & crisis intervention, legal aspects.

UNIT-VIII: Mid-wifery & Gynecological nursing: Embryology and fiddle development, nursing management of pregnant women, labour, nursing management of baby at birth and mother during puriterium. Hi-risk pregnancy, obstetric operation

UNIT-IX: Pediatric Nursing: Newborn, healthy child, sick child, behavioural disorder and common health problems during childhood, children with congenital defect, welfare of children.

UNIT-X: Professional Trends: Nursing as a profession, professional ethics, personal and professional growth and development, legislation in nursing, professional and related organisation.

Administration and Management: Hospital and ward.