

Top 50 Repetitive Questions with Answers in MAH B.Ed CET 2026 Teaching Aptitude

Q1. Teaching aptitude mainly tests a teacher's ability to:

Ans: Apply appropriate teaching methods

Q2. A teacher notices that some students are not responding in class. What should be the teacher do FIRST?

Ans: Identify the cause of non-participation

Q3. Which skill is essential for classroom teaching?

Ans: Communication

Q4. Which factor affects learning most?

Ans: Motivation

Q5. Evaluation in teaching helps to:

Ans: Improve learning

Q6. Which is the best indicator of effective teaching?

Ans: Student understanding

Q7. Individual differences mean:

Ans: Students differ in abilities

Q8. Which teaching style promotes creativity?

Ans: Democratic

Q9. Learning is permanent when it is:

Ans: Meaningful

Q10. The best discipline is:

Ans: Self-discipline

Q11. Which quality builds trust in students?

Ans: Consistency

Q12. A good question should be:

Ans: Thought-provoking

Q13. Learning environment should be:

Ans: Supportive

Q14. Reinforcement in teaching means:

Ans: Encouragement

Q15. Which approach is student-centered?

Ans: Project

Q16. Teaching becomes ineffective when:

Ans: Teacher dominates

Q17. Classroom interaction improves:

Ans: Understanding

Q18. A good teacher accepts:

Ans: Criticism

Q19. Learning outcomes should be:

Ans: Measurable

Q20. Which improves teaching quality?

Ans: Feedback

Q21. The most effective teaching strategy is:

Ans: Active learning

Q22. Teaching aims at:

Ans: Skill and attitude development

Q23. A successful teacher is one who:

Ans: Inspires learners

Q24. When students make mistakes, a good teacher should:

Ans: Use mistakes as learning opportunities

Q25. Teaching aptitude mainly tests a teacher's ability to:

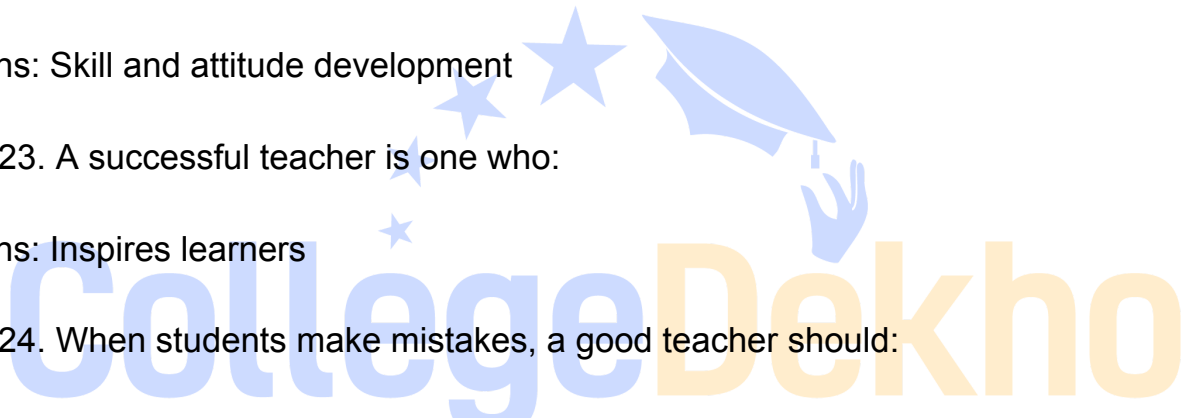

Ans: Apply appropriate teaching methods

Q26. If students come from diverse backgrounds, the teacher should:

Ans: Adopt inclusive teaching strategies

Q27. A learner-centered approach emphasizes:

Ans: Student needs and interests

Q28. Which of the following discourages learning?

Ans: Fear and humiliation

Q29. The main role of teaching aids is to:

Ans: Make learning concrete and interesting

Q30. A teacher who respects students' opinions promotes:

Ans: Democratic environment

Q31. Continuous assessment helps a teacher to:

Ans: Identify learning gaps

Q32. Which of the following is the best teaching practice?

Ans: Encourage questioning

Q33. Teaching is effective when students:

Ans: Understand and apply concepts

Q34. A teacher should adapt teaching methods according to:

Ans: Learning abilities of students

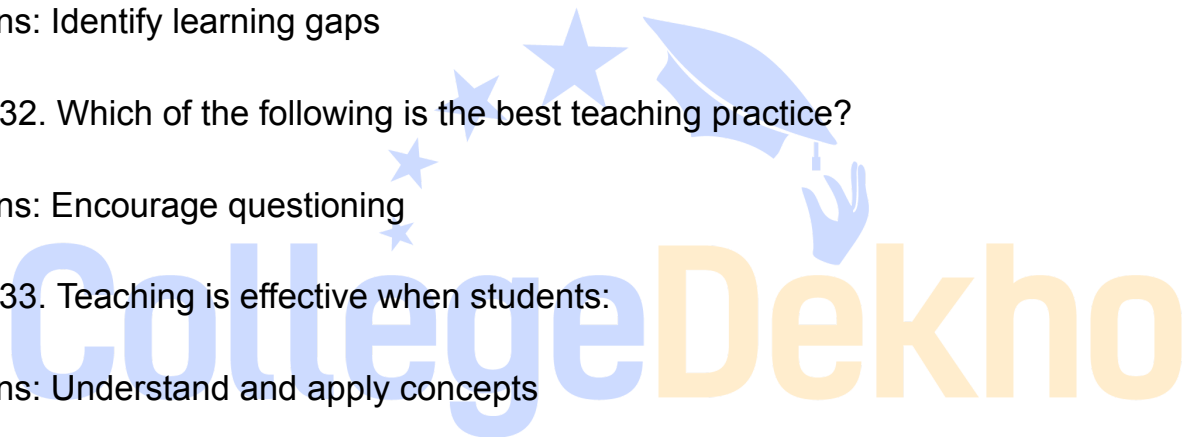

Q35. Classroom discipline is best maintained through:

Ans: Mutual respect

Q36. The most important quality of a teacher is:

Ans: Empathy

Q37. Which situation reflects poor teaching?

Ans: Teacher discouraging questions

Q36. A teacher acts as a facilitator when he/she:

Ans: Guides students to discover knowledge

Q37. Learning becomes meaningful when it is:

Ans: Related to real-life situations

Q38. Which teaching method promotes creativity?

Ans: Project work

Q39. A teacher should give feedback that is:

Ans: Immediate and constructive

Q40. The purpose of asking questions in class is to:

Ans: Stimulate thinking

Q41. Inclusive teaching means:

Ans: Teaching all students equally

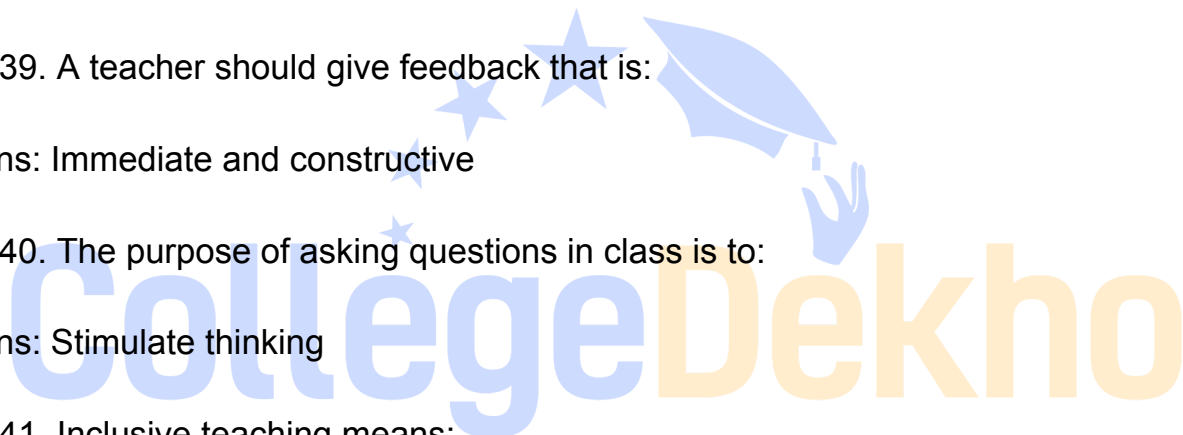

Q42. Which factor motivates students most?

Ans: Appreciation and encouragement

Q43. A teacher should handle slow learners by:

Ans: Providing additional support

Q44. Teaching is considered successful when:

Ans: Students show desired learning outcomes

Q45. The classroom environment should be:

Ans: Safe and supportive

Q46. A reflective teacher:

Ans: Improves teaching based on experience

Q47. Which is an example of student-centered teaching?

Ans: Group discussion

Q48. Teaching aptitude focuses on:

Ans: Teaching effectiveness

Q49. The best way to handle classroom questions is to:

Ans: Answer politely and clearly

Q50. A teacher notices that some students are not responding in class. What should the teacher do first?

Ans: Identify the cause of non-participation

